

Ben Turpin And Buster Keaton To Star Next Week

"The man that never laughs." "The greatest droll comedian." That is the press comment on Buster Keaton, one of the greatest of the present day screen stars, who will appear at the Kahului theatre one week from today in his latest picture "The Paleface."

Leading the program, however, for that night of the States first run feature service, is the Mack Sennett five reel comedy starring Ben Turpin in "Married Life."

Every movie fan knows Ben Turpin and his comic antics that never fail to bring the largest house to his feet and will also remember Buster Keaton in his latest screen dramas "The High Sign" and "The Haunted House."

"Twin Beds" Is Feature Production Of States Service At Kahului

"Twin Beds!" Those of the Maui theatre goers who have enjoyed this production on the dramatic stage, on the mainland, will find many an added laugh in the play as a screen production, which will be the States feature offering at the Kahului Theatre, tonight.

With the Alert Boy Scouts of Maui

Kipahulu, Maui, Aug. 8, 1922.

On Friday night, August 4th, we had a meeting of troop 4 as usual and all scouts were present. Tests on judging and recruiting were passed by two scouts. One passed test on first aid and two passed tenderfoot.

The scouts are much interested in bugling and are trying their best to be good buglers so that they be chosen as the buglers for the troop. After the regular meeting the scouts sang songs and did funny acts. The meeting adjourned at 9:30 p. m.

Aloha nui to you and the troops, I am.

Your Scout,
LAWRENCE HASHIMOTO,
Scribe, Troop 4.

Troop 12 Haiku

There was a full attendance at the meeting held on Monday night at the Cafeteria of the cannery. A number of scouts from Hawaii who are working at the cannery were present also. Chas. Jacobs of Troop 8 of Hana, Scoutmaster Langa of the Makawao Bronco Busters was also present and gave the troop a drill in signalling also passing some of the scouts in their compass tests.

Scoutmaster Sousa was busy in getting ready for a show and so the executive passed the scouts in their tenderfoot tests. All passed with flying colors so now all are tenderfoot. A good singing was held and the troop dismissed at 9 p. m.

Troop 6, Makawao

This week we held no regular meeting as the scoutmaster was unable to be present. The boys were waiting at the Makawao Restaurant when one of the scouts informed us that the scoutmaster would not be present. We all told stories and all had a chance to tell one. The owner of the restaurant listened and seemed to enjoy it. We went home about 8:30 p. m. It was said in the last weeks meeting that the troop wanted to give another show because a great many of the present members are going away to school in Honolulu and we wanted to give the show before they went away. We want to make a farewell show to them. Most of the people are anxious to see the show as they were pleased with the last one we gave.

L. DE COSTA, Scribe.

Troop 11 at Hamakuaupo are holding well attended meetings as the following shows:

August 8, 1922.

In the absence of troop leader Walter Walker the meeting was called to order by junior troop leader Thomas Freitas. The scout oath and laws were repeated and after a brief business meeting the scoutmaster gave instruction in standing at attention, facing and marking time. It was intended to hold an outdoor meeting but on account of the rain this idea was abandoned and the time was given over to lifts and carries in first aid. The pledge to the flag was given and the meeting adjourned at 8:50 p. m.

Respectfully submitted,
RENZO TAKUMI, Scribe.

The scoutmaster was well pleased with the attendance for in spite of the summer vacation, fourteen scouts were present which is 50 percent of the entire troop. The new troop treasurer, Henry Baldwin was busy getting the dues.

From the Scoutmaster

I am enclosing herewith test slips and report of last night's meeting and you might add that we have a live troop committee for Mr. J. J. Correll has been passing the scouts in their scout pace which shows that our troop committee is on the job. Henry Baldwin is now the troop treasurer and Kazuchi Tagawa and Allen Correll tied for honors as the highest standing in the troop which includes attendance, payment of dues and tests passed.

Sincerely yours,
EMIL DAVIS, Scoutmaster
